

Message Summary: All In Part 1 - What's Next?

Takeaway: If you will listen to the Lord, He will show up, show out, and show Himself strong.

Scriptural References:

- Acts 2:1-4
- Acts 1:9-14

Key Points:

- The reason you go up the mountaintop is so you can take the message back down the mountain top to the people.
- You step into your season of Next through prayer.
- Even the greatest team with the greatest talent requires coaching.
- A goal without a plan is just a wish.
 - Concrete commitments are the only way you'll achieve concrete results.
 - Without clear and measurable goals, you allow the uncommitted to justify the level of allegiance and limit the team's success.
- When everyone gets on board with a mission and vision larger than themselves to change the world, success becomes exponential.
- When we do our part, God will show up and do His.
- God wants to rush into areas of your life, but you must properly align and position yourself.
- God wants all of us to be anointed in our various roles as we reach our generation.
- You need to be so occupied by the Holy Spirit and the Lord's presence that you can't ever go back to where you once were.
- You should only do what the Holy Spirit enables you to do.
- "It's not the years of your life that counts, but the life in your years." -Abraham Lincoln
 - The journey may not be easy, but it'll be worth it.
