

DGM Message Summary: All In Pt. 4 (The Finale)

Takeaway: As God prepares you for a new season of your life, there will be tests. But if you commit to God's Word and take the vow to be "all in", you will experience a radical transformation in your life.

Scriptural References:

- Acts 2:41
- I Samuel 15:23
- Acts 2:46
- Acts 4:1-3
- Acts 5:1-14

Key Points:

- God seems to hide our opportunities in something that is not convenient.
 - However, God has always prepared us so we shouldn't be tripped up.
- Worship without submission is witchcraft. Worship without obedience is flattery.
- Each period of growth in your life will be accompanied by a test.
- You can only make a difference by being different.
 - It's the distinction you bring that makes you valuable.
 - God made you on purpose, not accident. Live like it!
- With great power, comes great responsibility. -Voltaire
- You're not to be trusted until you're tested. And if you can't be tested, then you shouldn't be trusted.
- If you never bump into the Devil, it's because you and the Devil are running in the same direction.
- Salvation may be free, but there will be things that are required of us; we will face trials on our journey.
- When you prove your salt, God will give you more to flavor.
- Some of us are not winning because when God gave us a victory, we touched some of the proceeds that God instructed to not touch.
- God will never settle for a portion of our hearts. He wants us to seek Him wholeheartedly.
- God will not lower His standards for those who refuse to raise theirs.
 - Sometimes, if we don't learn on Earth, God will call us home.

- People are attracted to what they respect.
 - Many of us want to be liked, but it's more important to be respected than liked.
 - Standards are what separate the mediocre from the exceptional.
