

DGM Message Summary: Overcoming Your Past Pt. 2 (9/6/15)

Message Summary: Breaking the curse of shame and defeat begins in your mind. In order to change, you need to put an alternative model on the table, or harness the power of vision to propel you forward.

Key Points:

- To deal with those who've hurt you, it begins with taking ownership of allowing them into your life
 - Did you have a criteria?
 - What did you want from them?
 - What did they contribute to them?
 - Did you know who you were in Christ prior to inviting them into your life?
- How to break shame
 - Relationship with God (because He challenges, not condemns)
 - Accepting responsibility for your life
 - Accepting that everyone has an opinion
- It's impossible to adjust what you fail to address
- There's a strong correlation between what you speak and what actually happens in your life
 - For every day you speak negatively, you potentially subject yourself to a year in the wilderness
- True freedom is saying no when you have the ability to say yes
