- God called Moses to speak for Him even though he was flawed
- God wants us graduate from the school of self-confidence to the school of God-confidence
- Paul says in 2 Corinthians 12:7 “So to keep me from becoming conceited because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from becoming conceited.”
- Paul prayed three times about the thorn and it was not removed. God said “my grace is sufficient for you”
- No matter who we are God will not always remove the problem, sometimes God gives us the grace to go through the storm.
- God allows us to go through these things to keep us sharp and alert
- Story of the Catfish and Cod fish
- Sometimes when we are challenged, that’s when we become most alive
- Paul said 2 Corinthians 12:9 “Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
- Unlike the angels, we were created with tremendous need. Our need is the reason God sent Jesus to redeem us.
- The fact I have a need means God is about to solve something
- Your weaknesses are no surprise to God
- When God calls you, He knows your need and has made a provision for your weakness to become your strength
- God reminds Moses that He made man’s mouth
- God tells him to go and God will be with him and teach you what you will say

- Moses begs God to send someone else
- If we focus on our weakness, we will miss His strength
- Moses's begging "kindles His anger"
- Even though God was angry he makes room for Moses feeling of inadequacies.
- God allows Moses, Aaron to speak for Him
- In the mist of God's anger, God double his original promise (he would be with Aaron & Moses)
